NON-HIT SHOOTING EVALUATION

UNIT:	Century Station Patrol
DATE:	February 23, 2004, Monday
TIME:	1547 hours
LOCATION:	[redacted] Norton Avenue, Lynwood, CA 90262
URN#:	404-03203-2112-055
IAB#:	SH 2110176

NATURE OF INCIDENT:

On February 23, 2004, at about 1547 hours, Deputy Noe Garcia was involved in a non-hit shooting incident. Deputies from the Century Station received a radio call of a man with a gun across the street from [redacted], in the city of Lynwood. When Deputy Garcia arrived at the location he saw a male rum across the street from behind his location and run toward [redacted] Norton Avenue. Deputy Garcia exited his radio car and followed after the male for a very short distance to set up on a containment for the possible suspect. Deputy Garcia saw the male run northbound in the long driveway and saw that he appeared to be holding onto his waistband. Deputy Garcia ordered the male to stop and the suspect continued climbing up onto the roof of a carport at the end of the apartment complex. Once on the roof of the carport, Deputy Garcia saw the suspect turn in his direction and appeared to be holding onto a blue steel handgun. Deputy Garcia fired two rounds at the suspect to stop the immediate threat. The suspect fled northbound off of the carport roof and ran onto Elizabeth Avenue, where he was detained by deputies on containment.

INVOLVED DEPUTY:

Deputy Noe Garcia, #[redacted] said on February 23, 2004 at about 1545 hours, he received a radio call to respond to [redacted] in the city of Lynwood, regarding a report of "a man with a gun " call(Tag# 0184). Garcia received information the suspect was described as a male Hispanic adult, wearing a white T-shirt, black pants and had a shaved head. He was reported to be carrying a black handgun in his right hand. The radio call indicated that the suspect was across from [redacted], on the sidewalk.

> IAB Note: refer to Miscellaneous Documents section for the call details of Tag# 184 and 185.

Deputy Garcia was directed by the handling unit, Deputy J. Perez(212D/P), to respond along with another unit, Deputy Samuel Valiente(212E2/P), eastbound on Norton Avenue from Long Beach Boulevard. Both units entered on Norton Avenue and started to check the area for the possible suspect.

When Deputy Garcia approached [redacted], he saw a male Hispanic standing in front, behind a parked vehicle. Garcia noticed that the male had a shaved head. Garcia started to drive toward the male to contact him as the possible suspect. As Garcia came nearer to the male, he saw another male Hispanic dressed in all black clothing, run northbound across Norton Avenue from behind his radio car. The suspect ran from about [redacted] or [redacted] Garcia stopped his radio car and looked over his left shoulder in time to see a male Hispanic, dressed in black with a shaved head run toward [redacted] Norton Avenue and out-of-sight. Deputy Garcia saw Deputy Valiente, who was behind his car, suddenly stop his vehicle and start to back up. Deputy Garcia exited his vehicle and started to take up a spot on a containment at the mouth of the driveway at [redacted] Norton Avenue. (Refer to Exhibit I, Photographs #1 and #2)
Garcia believed that Deputy Valiente was going to take up a point on containment at another location

Deputy Garcia saw from his containment point a male Hispanic, wearing a black hooded sweatshirt and black pants, running northbound in the long driveway of [redacted] Norton Avenue. Garcia noticed that the suspect was holding onto his waistband with his right hand as he ran. He was approximately ten yards from the rear carports at the rear of the apartment complex. Deputy Garcia stated he yelled out to the suspect to stop and to put his hands up in the air. The suspect appeared to ignore Garcia's commands and continued to run toward a wrought iron fence that was on the westside of the carports. Deputy Garcia saw the suspect reach the fence and start to climb up on it. Deputy Garcia took up a position in the driveway to see where the suspect was going and radio to the assisting units the suspect's direction of travel (Refer to Exhibit I, Photographs #3 and #4).

When the suspect climbed to the top of the fence, Garcia again yelled out to the suspect to stop. The suspect continued to climb the fence, up onto the roof of the carports. When the suspect was on top of the carport roof, Garcia advanced further northbound in the driveway to a point just south of the end of the apartment building to monitor the suspect's direction of travel and to set up a containment. (Refer to Exhibit I, Photographs # 5 and #6)The suspect continued a few steps toward the rear of the carport roof and turned toward Deputy Garcia. Garcia saw that the suspect appeared to be pulling an object from his waistband. He saw that the suspect appeared to be holding onto a blue steel colored handgun in his right hand. The suspect continued to turn in the direction of Garcia and appeared to raise up the blue steel handgun toward Garcia.

Garcia stated that he could see on top of the carport and there was a large tree from behind the carport and a stucco wall as a back drop for a clear view of the suspect (Refer to Exhibit I, Photographs #7 and #8). Based on Deputy Garcia's observations, he believed the suspect possessed a handgun and was about to discharge it at him. Fearing for his safety, Garcia fired two rounds from his departmentally issued semi-automatic pistol at the suspect to stop the immediate threat.

IAB NOTE: Two expended shell casing where found in driveway of [redacted] Norton Avenue. (Refer to Exhibit #-I, Photograph #6) An examination of Deputy Garcia's service weapon, revealed that it contained thirteen unexpended rounds in the magazine and one in the chamber. (Refer to Miscellaneous Documents, Lab Receipt # J349369 and Firearms Section Report)

Deputy Garcia re-assessed his target and saw the suspect turn away from him and run away. It appeared the suspect jumped off of the carport roof and ran northbound toward Elizabeth Avenue, out-of-sight.(Refer to Exhibit I, Photographs # 9 and #10).

Deputy Garcia advised his assisting units that he had been involved in a shooting and that the suspect was last seen running away from him toward Elizabeth Avenue. Deputy Garcia said he heard that Deputy Perez had detained a male seen running from the rear of [redacted].

Deputy Garcia drove to Deputy Perez's location and was able to positively identify the male detained by Perez as the male who ran from him and pointed a handgun at him.

NON-INVOLVED DEPUTY PERSONNEL:

Deputy John Perez, #[redacted] said he responded to [redacted], in the city of Lynwood, regarding a report of a man with a gun. In the call it stated the suspect was a male Hispanic adult wearing a white T-shirt, black pants and a shaved head. It was reported the suspect was armed with a compact black handgun, which allegedly, he carried it in his right hand.

Deputy Perez using a tactical frequency, directed Deputy Garcia, 213B/days and Deputy Valiente, 212E2/P to "stage" near the location. Deputy Spiropoulos, 212T3/P, was directed to respond to the area as well. Once there were sufficient radio cars to go into the area safely, they started to check the area for the possible suspect.

Deputy Perez said he heard Deputy Valiente broadcast that he saw a suspect running northbound through a driveway on Norton Avenue. Deputy Perez stopped and positioned himself on a containment point, on Elizabeth Avenue, just north of Norton Avenue. While on the containment point, Perez heard Deputy Garcia advise over the radio that he was just involved in a shooting and that the suspect was last seen running toward Elizabeth Avenue.

Deputy Perez began driving westbound on Elizabeth Avenue from California Avenue when he saw a male running northbound, across the street from [redacted]. Deputy Perez ordered the male to stop and he complied by falling to the ground in front of [redacted]. The male laid out in a prone position, on the ground and said he was sorry. Deputy Valiente arrived and placed the male in handcuffs. Deputy Perez advised the units he had detained a male on Elizabeth Avenue.

Deputy Garcia arrived on Elizabeth Avenue and identified the male as the person who pointed a firearm at him and who Garcia fired the two rounds at. The suspect, Josue Guardado, MH/18 years old, was checked for weapons and there were no weapons found on his person. Suspect Guardado made a spontaneous statement to Deputy Perez that he had a portable CD player in his possession and not a weapon. *

An area search of where the suspect was seen fleeing from revealed a black and gray portable CD player, (Refer to Exhibit I, Photograph #11 and #12), found on the ground behind [redacted], an area just below the rear carport of [redacted] Norton Avenue. The CD player was booked into evidence at Century Station by Deputy Perez.

IAB Note: refer to Exhibit A, a copy of Deputy Perez's crime report for the documentation of the CD player as evidence.

Deputy Samuel Valiente, #[redacted] said he was assigned to Unit 213E2 when he responded to a radio call of a man with a gun in the area of [redacted], in the city of Lynwood. When Valiente drove eastbound on Norton Avenue from Long Beach Boulevard, he reported seeing a male on the south sidewalk matching the description given in the call. The male suddenly ran in a westbound direction passed Valiente. As the male ran passed Valiente, he saw that the male appeared to be reaching into his waistband with his right hand. Valiente backed his patrol car and stopped approximately four houses west of [redacted] Norton Avenue to watch the male. As he saw the male run, Valiente saw that the male appeared to be holding a small black handgun in his right hand. Valiente saw the male run northbound in the driveway at [redacted] Norton Avenue. Deputy Valiente broadcasted over his tactical radio frequency that the male was armed and running northbound through the apartments on Norton Avenue.

Deputy John Spiropoulos, #[redacted] said he was assigned to 212T3 when he heard the radio call of a man with a gun at [redacted], in the city of Lynwood. He responded to the area to assist the assigned units. When he arrived on Norton Avenue, he saw a male, later identified as Suspect Guardado, run across Norton Avenue and continue northbound in the driveway at [redacted] Norton Avenue. As the male ran across the street, Spiropoulos saw that the male was holding onto the lower portion of his black sweatshirt and waistband of his pants. He believed the suspect was attempting to conceal something under his clothing.

Deputy Spiropoulos immediately took up a position in the walkway of the Apartment complex just east of [redacted] Norton Avenue as a containment point. He heard the two gunshots and that deputy Garcia was involved in a shooting. Spiropoulos remained on containment until he heard the suspect had been detained on Elizabeth Avenue.

SUSPECT STATEMENTS:

SUSPECT Josue Guardado was interviewed on 02-23-04 at about 2045 hours, Detectives Michael Lopez and Cadiz, assigned to Century Station O.S.S. interviewed Suspect Josue Guardado concerning the events earlier. The interview took place inside an interview room at the Century Regional Detention Center. I.A.B. Investigator, Sergeant Landreth, sat in on the interview. The suspect was advised of his constitutional rights per SH-AD 477, lines #1 through #5. Guardado said he understood his rights and agreed to speak to the detectives without an attorney present.

During the interview, Suspect Guardado admitted to being an active gang member with membership in the "Lynwood Rude Boys" street gang and had been a member for about five years. He said that he went to the 3300 block of Norton Avenue around 1500 hours, after he left his work. The 3300 block is a gathering point for members of Lynwood Rude Boys Gang. He met up with a fellow member, "B-Boy", who he only knew as "Ralfa". They both walked to Norton Avenue and California Avenue, where they came upon a male Hispanic, approximately 15 to 17 years old. At first, Guardado was deceptive but, changed his statement to reflect that he and "B-Boy" came upon the male and asked him what gang he was from. The male answered and told them he was from another gang or "tagging crew". Suspect Guardado said he recognized the tagging crew as a group who did not get along with Rude Boys and Guardado struck the male, knocking him to the ground. The male got up and ran with Guardado and "B-Boy" chasing after him. They chased the male until he reached Martin Luther King Boulevard and out-of-sight.

> IAB Note: A Suspicious Circumstances , Possible Robbery, report was taken and two witnesses were located and interviewed. The witnesses related an incident identical to the assault described by Suspect Guardado. The report was taken by Deputy C. Brown, file # 104-03241-2112-444. For details refer to Exhibit G.

After the attack, Guardado and "B-Boy" walked back to Norton Avenue and stood in front of [redacted] Norton Avenue, a place where Lynwood Rude Boys associate together.

> IAB Note: An inspection of the rear carport of [redacted] Norton Avenue revealed it was an apparent well known gathering spot for the gang. There was considerable graffiti on the carport with "Rude Boyz" and gang monikers spray painted on the walls, chairs placed in the rear and as impromptu ladders to gain access onto the carport roof. Refer to Exhibit I, Photographs #3 and #4.

Guardado said they stood in front of [redacted] Norton Avenue for a short time when they saw the Sheriff's Department cars driving down the street. Guardado said he became scared because he believed they were looking for them after the assault they just committed. Guardado said he ran northbound in the driveway of [redacted] Norton Avenue. He said he did not know in which direction "B-Boy" ran, only that he also ran from the deputies. Guardado said he ran over the fence next to the carport and started to climb up onto the roof. When he reached the roof top, he heard the deputy(Garcia) yell out to him to stop. He continued a couple more steps and heard two gunshots. He ran to the edge of the carport roof and jumped off into the rear of [redacted]. He continued to run northbound to Elizabeth Avenue. When he attempted to run across Elizabeth, a deputy yelled out to him and he surrendered.

Suspect Guardado said he has ran from deputies before and has been able to elude them. He has been stopped before and released after a simple interview. He said that he ran this time because he was scared he would be arrested for the assault on California Avenue. He denied pointing a weapon at the deputy. He said he did not have any weapons and would not have pointed anything at the deputy. When asked about why he was seen holding onto his waistband by several people, he said he had his [redacted] portable CD player with him and did not want to lose or drop it. He said he had the CD player in the pocket of his sweatshirt. He said that it fell out of his pocket just prior to jumping off of the carport roof into the rear courtyard on Elizabeth Avenue. He told the investigators that he was holding onto the CD player in his right hand fearful he would lose or drop it. During the interview, Guardado would not admit to possessing a handgun, but said he could understand how a person would believe he did by the way he was holding onto the CD player.
